

COC/ chief engineer

seagoing service as officer in charge of an engineering watch or as second engineer officer: not less than 24 months seagoing service as officer in charge of an engineering watch: not less than 12 months maritime training courses at Fachschulen: 2 years “Fachschulen” are schools based on vocational qualification maritime courses at Fachhochschule : 3 years/ 6 semester “Fachhochschulen” are degree- granting colleges of higher education

practical training and seagoing service as assistant engineer
officer

12 month

practical training and
seagoing service as
assistant engineer officer

12 month

vocational training
of
ship mechanic

3 years

vocational training in metalworking
and electrical occupations

3 or 3,5 years

practical training and
seagoing
service as assistant engineer
officer

12 month

maritime vocational course at „Berufsfachschulen : 2 years fulltime vocational schools

9 or 10 years school final certificate

vocational
training
of
ship
mechanic

3 years

vocational
training in
metalworking
and electrical
occupations

3 or 3,5 years

practical training
and seagoing
service as assistant
engineer
officer

18 month

12 or 13 years school final certification and examination

